MAIN LEVEL

UPPER LEVEL

Main Level

- The home's column-lined central gallery gracefully divides the traditional formal rooms from the more casual family areas.
- Pocket doors separate the family room from the living room, located just off the two-story foyer.
- A swinging door connects the dining room to the kitchen, aiding in meal serving and preparation.
- With two sinks, a work island and granite counters, two cooks can work side-by-side in the kitchen. Kids and guests can keep the cooks company at the raised bar.
- Large windows, porch access and a vaulted ceiling create an open, airy atmosphere for casual meals in the breakfast room.
- A fireplace and flanking French doors accessing the porch serve as an elegant backdrop for conversation in the two-story family room.
- A lofty 10-foot ceiling heightens the spacious owners' suite. Its luxurious bath features dual vanities, a whirlpool tub, separate shower and an impressive, L-shaped walk-in closet.
- A separate one-car garage, in addition to the spacious two-car garage, provides ample space for the family fleet.

Upper Level

- Guests will love retiring to an upper-level suite with its own full bath.
- Two bedrooms conveniently share a bath with two vanities. One of the bedrooms has two dormer windows, while the other has a walk-in closet.
- Billiards tables were made for a recreation room like this one. A second staircase provides a quick transition from the main level.
