- Massive columns, high, dramatic arches and expansive glass attract passersby to this alluring one-story home.
- Inside, coffered ceilings are found in the living and dining rooms and the foyer. A bank of windows in the living room provides a great view of the covered patio, creating a bright, open effect that is carried throughout the home.
- The informal, family activity areas are oriented to the back of the home as well. Spectacular window walls in the breakfast room and family room offer tremendous views. The family room's inviting corner fireplace is positioned to be enjoyed from the breakfast area and the spacious island kitchen.
- Separated from the secondary bedrooms, the superb master suite is entered through double doors and features a sitting room and a garden bath. Another full bath is across the hall from the den, which would also make a great guest room or nursery.
