PLAN NO. B6N91B7 or B6N91B7A (without basement)—A rambling roofline, turret and other touches borrowed from old England lend this home a distinctive facade, but indoors the open floor plan offers complete flexibility for contemporary lifestyles in 2,495 sq.ft. The brick turret shelters the front door, which opens into a spacious, vaulted entry hall. To the right is the expansive living and dining area. Angling to the left is the open staircase to the second floor or a hallway to the family room, with fireplace; the den, or fourth bedroom; the island kitchen, and the open-ceiling breakfast nook. A full bathroom and the utility room also are off the front hall. Upstairs, double doors open to the elegant master suite, with sunken tub and planters fitted into the turret alcove, a walk-in wardrobe and a separate shower and bathroom.
