① & ② Profile is field dry throughout. Sample had to be hand moistened. Horizons approximated based on moistened samples @ 10= intervals + @ 45". Backhoe pits made during field moist soil conditions could possibly show different horizon depths, would definitely demonstrate structure, and could possibly influence LTAR, resistance to augering noted, increasing around 30" and then again around 40".