being denominated as Crystal Brooke Lane and crossing the Alexander Railroad as it extends from North Carolina Highway 90 to the property conveyed here today.

There is conveyed with this property the right of the Grantee to place septic tank drain lines as needed on the land of the Grantor. This right of way and easement shall pass with the land.